

SIGNIFICANT EVENT NOTICE

The following page outlines an important change which may affect your account with Super SA.

Amendment to Fees and costs disclosure

Based on a revised arrangement entered into with Industry Fund Services (IFS), which outlines the terms on which they provide financial planning services to members and investors of Super SA Schemes, the below Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) phrase is no longer relevant and was removed as part of our recent August 2021 PDS updates:

Super SA does not charge or receive commissions from financial advisers, sales agents or any other person or entity.

The costs of making financial advice available to members and investors through IFS are included in the Administration fees set out in the Fees and costs section (first table) of PDS.
