*By providing your email address and/or telephone number(s) you are agreeing to receive, from Super SA, or an organisation on behalf of Super SA, marketing communications including newsletters, announcements, invitations or surveys. You may opt out of these marketing communications at any time by updating your communication preferences in our online member portal or by contacting Super SA. If you opt out of marketing communications, you will still receive important account information from us.

Important:

Super SA may need to contact you by phone to clarify the information you have provided or to seek further information to assist the request. The staff from Super SA abide by confidentiality procedures in all matters relating to superannuation. In these circumstances, it would be helpful if you could provide a phone number where you can be contacted during office hours.

Super SA

Family Law - Regulation 144 Notice

Please complete this form in BLOCK LETTERS using a BLACK PEN and return the signed original form to Super SA.

2. Fees

Fees are permitted to be charged in terms of Part VIIIB and Part VIIIC of the Family Law Act.

The fee for splitting a superannuation entitlement is payable:

- by each party, both the member spouse and the non-member spouse, and
- for each scheme that is being split.

Fees also vary depending on which scheme or schemes are to be split. These are outlined in the table to the right.

Fees are payable via BPAY at the time of request. Contact Super SA for BPAY details.

Triple S	$100 each party
Lump Sum Scheme	$176 each party
Pension Scheme	$176 each party
Super SA Income Stream	$100 each party
Super SA Flexible Rollover Product	$100 each party
Super SA Select	$100 each party

Example - If a Triple S and Lump Sum Scheme account are being split, the fee payable by each party is $276 ($100 + $176).

Important:

Once Super SA has received your agreement/order and this notice, we will create an interest for you. Super SA will then write to you requesting payment instructions and payment of the splitting fee.

3. Declaration

I have enclosed a certified copy¹ of an approved splitting order or agreement. All information in this form is true and correct.
