

IN THIS FACT SHEET

- > Annual administration fee
- > Investment management fee
- > Family law fee
- > Other fees

This fact sheet will help you better understand the fees charged by Super SA and how they impact on your investment in the Pension Scheme.

Annual administration fee

The cost of the administration of the Pension Scheme is shared proportionally between members and employers:

- Scheme members pay 30% of the cost of administering the Pension Scheme.
- Employers pay 70% of the cost of administering the Pension Scheme.

The member share of administration costs is deducted from the Member Fund.

Investment management fee

This is the fee charged for managing the Scheme's investments.

Amounts for investment fees are deducted from the Scheme as a whole. These deductions are borne indirectly by employers and members and may affect your return on any entitlements related to your Member Account or Rollover Account. They do not affect your entitlements related to your superannuation salary.

The earnings allocated to your accounts are net of any fees charged for the management of investments.

It is important to note that if you take a pension, investment fees only affect you if you have a Rollover Account.

Family law fee

This is the fee charged for any member requests relating to family law matters.

The fee for processing and responding to an application for information is $176 for each request.

The fee for splitting an entitlement under a Splitting Agreement or Order is $176 for each party.

Fees are payable at the time of the request. If the fee has not been paid within one month of becoming due, the fee may be deducted from the entitlement that has been split.

Other fees

Super SA does not charge any of the following fees:

- Establishment fee
- Withdrawal fee
- Adviser service fee
- Expense recoveries
- Contributions fee
- Termination fee
- Issuer fee

Fees are subject to review.

Payments can be made by electronic funds transfer (EFT).

Contact Super SA for more details.
