Identification documents can be provided either as original documents or as certified copies of original documents.

Among the reforms introduced by the Commonwealth Government in relation to anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing (AML/CTF) is the requirement for those claiming super entitlements to provide proof of identity.

This means that you or your representative (if applicable), are required to provide proof of identity when applying for the payment of a cash entitlement. For any exceptions to this requirement refer to the boxout section opposite.

Accepted documents

Super SA must be able to verify your name, date of birth and residential address from:

- an original document or
- a certified copy or
- a certified extract from an original document.

The source documents may be either:

- a primary photographic identification document (your name and either your date of birth or residential address)
- both a primary non-photographic identification document and a secondary identification document (your name, date of birth and residential address).

The documents must be valid and not have expired. The only exception to this is a passport issued by a Commonwealth country, providing it expired less than two years ago.

Exceptions

Post-retirement products

Proof of identity documents are required for Super SA’s Income Stream and Flexible Rollover Product only in the following situations:

- opening a Flexible Rollover Product or Income Stream account (provision of a designated service)
- payment of a death benefit on commencing a reversionary pension
- full or partial cash payments (unless proof of identity documents are already held in the member’s current name).

Note: if Super SA holds a copy of your proof of identity documents, which are currently valid and show your current details, then those documents on file can be used to verify a withdrawal application. If the identification records you have previously provided to us are expired or the address on the proof of identity documents we hold doesn’t match the address we have on our records, we will require you to provide up-to-date, certified proof of identity documents.

Division 293 tax payment

To make a Division 293 tax payment directly to the ATO from a Super SA account, proof of identity documents are not required.

Primary photographic identification documents

A primary photographic identification document is one of the following:

- a driver’s licence containing your photograph
- a passport issued by the Commonwealth of Australia
- a passport or similar document issued for international travel purposes by a foreign government, the United Nations or an agency of governments.

A ‘certified copy’ is a copy of an original document that has been signed and certified by an authorised person (see list on page 2).

The authorised person must see the original document and certify that the copy is a ‘certified true copy’ of the original document. All pages of the document need to be certified as a true copy of the original by writing ‘certified true copy’ on each page. The certification must contain an original signature. Faxed copies cannot be accepted.

Documents must be certified and dated within the last six months.

Secondary identification documents

A secondary identification document is one of the following documents containing your name and residential address:

> a notice issued to you by the Commonwealth, or a State or Territory government within the preceding 12 months, that shows you have received financial benefits from that government > a notice issued to you by the Australian Taxation Office within the preceding 12 months which records details of a Commonwealth tax debt or rebate > a notice issued by a local government body or utilities provider within the preceding three months which records the provision of services to you or your address.

If you do not have any of the documents listed above, please contact Super SA to discuss your options.

Providing the documents to Super SA

Identification documents can be provided either as original documents or as certified copies of original documents.

If you provide original documents please bring them to the Super SA Member Centre, Ground Floor 151 Pirie Street (enter from Pulteney Street), Adelaide. A Super SA staff member will sight the documents and take a photocopy for our records and return the originals to you immediately.

If you provide certified copies then you can post the documents or deliver them in person to Super SA when you apply for payment of your cash entitlement. Super SA will retain these documents.

Who can certify a copy of your identification document(s)?

Under AML/CTF rules, the following people are able to certify that copies of your documents are true extracts of the originals:

> a person who is enrolled on the roll of the Supreme Court of a State or Territory, or the High Court of Australia, as a legal practitioner
> a person who is enrolled on the roll of the Supreme Court of a State or Territory, or the High Court of Australia, as a legal practitioner
> a person who is enrolled on the roll of the Supreme Court of a State or Territory, or the High Court of Australia, as a legal practitioner

A certified copy is a copy of an original document that has been signed and certified by an authorised person.

The authorised person must see the original document and certify that the copy is a certified true copy of the original document.

All pages of the document need to be certified as a true copy of the original by writing ‘certified true copy’ on each page.

The certification must contain an original signature. Faxed copies cannot be accepted.
