2. Changes to be made

I would like to change my name on your records. I have attached an original and recent certified copy² (certified within the last six months) of one of the following valid documents:

New name adopted by marriage	– Legal marriage certificate, issued under the Births, Deaths and Marriages Act 1996 .
A former name	– Birth certificate – Change of name certificate – Decree nisi, if divorce is not yet finalised – Divorce certificate – Legal marriage certificate, issued under the Births, Deaths and Marriages Act 1996 , showing maiden name and married name if reverting to maiden name
A new name	– Change of name certificate

I would like to change my date of birth on your records. I have attached an original and recent certified copy² (certified within the last six months) of one of the following valid documents:

- Passport
- Birth certificate
- State or territory proof of age card
- Citizenship certificate

² A certified copy is a copy of an original document that has been signed and certified by an authorised person.

The authorised person must see the original document and certify that the copy is a 'certified true copy' of the original document. All pages of the document need to be certified as a true copy of the original by writing 'certified true copy' on each page. The certification must contain an original signature.

The document must be a valid and recently certified copy (i.e. certified within the last six months)

For a list of authorised certifiers see page 2 of this form or you can bring the document into the Super SA office to be witnessed by a Super SA staff member.

For more information read the list of acceptable certifiers in the box-out section over the page or download the Proof of Identity fact sheet available from www.supersa.sa.gov.au.
