

SOUTH AUSTRALIAN AMBULANCE SERVICE SUPERANNUATION SCHEME

Notice of Election

Nominations for Consultative Committee

Clause 7 of the Trust Deed of the South Australian Ambulance Service Superannuation Scheme provides that the scheme shall have a consultative committee the functions of which are the following:

- a) act as a consultative body in relation to superannuation issues that have a significant impact on employees of the Principal Employer
- b) such other things as the Trustee, the Principal Employer and the Consultative Committee may agree from time to time.

The Consultative Committee consists of five members, being:

- two Employer Representatives
- two Member Representatives
- the Minister's Representative.

The term for the elected Member Representatives expire on 30 June 2022. Members are appointed for a three-year term.

Only members of the South Australian Ambulance Service Superannuation Scheme are eligible to nominate.

To nominate as a candidate for election as a Member Representative on the Consultative Committee, please submit your nomination using the attached Nomination Form to the Returning Officer, South Australian Ambulance Service Superannuation Scheme, by email to Kathy.odonnell@sa.gov.au. Nominations must be supported and countersigned by five current members of the defined benefit scheme.

Nominations close at 5pm on 10 June 2022.
